CARRIER OILS

do not evaporate or have a strong aroma, making them an excellent medium to reduce the concentration of essential oils without altering their beneficial properties. Because essential oils contain the natural fragrance and characteristics of the botanicals from which they are derived, many of them are too strong to apply directly to the skin without the use of a carrier oil.

SWEET ALMOND AND ALOE | FRACTIONATED COCONUT AND ALOE can be used to dilute and calm essential oils that will be applied topically. These carrier oils will ensure that essential oils, when applied, are comfortable to the skin.

BEFORE APPLYING TO THE SKIN, DILUTE THE ESSENTIAL OIL WITH THE CARRIER OIL USING THE FOLLOWING GUIDELINES:

- Children ages 4 and over and those with sensitive skin; blend 1 teaspoon of carrier oil for every 1 drop of essential oil.
- Adults with normal skin; blend 1 teaspoon of carrier oil for every 2 drops of essential oil.

Please note that vegetable shortening, butter, margarine or petroleum derivatives (such as mineral oil, baby oil and petroleum jelly) should never be used as carrier oils.
